Issue 103 December 2018

The Tawa Squash Club Committee wish all members and their families a very Merry Xmas and a safe and prosperous new year, preferably on the back of increased grading points!

Another successful year has passed us by with many highlights, all of which have been documented throughout the year.

Sincere thanks to all who helped out during the year by volunteering their time, supporting our events, or just by simply contributing to the culture we have built up at over the last 20 years.

Tawa Squash AGM

Our Annual General Meeting, held at the club on Sunday 9th December, had the biggest turnout in memory with 75 attendees. Details of new committee members are on the notice board at the club, on our website, and in the minutes of the meeting (which are also on our website). <http://tawasquash.weebly.com/news.html>

Tawa Ham and Turkey Tournament

The 12th annual Tawa Ham & Turkey Tournament was a resounding success with many participating for the first time and absolutely loving it. Hosting 128 players meant the tournament had to start Tuesday and finished Sunday – probably the only one in NZ to span such a wide period. This tournament just continues to grow but with only three courts this is the maximum size we can cater for.

Farewell Ian, Bridie & kids

Sadly for Tawa Squash we are losing the Richardson family as Ian takes up a new role in Australia marketing yellow sandpaper to the Australian Cricket Board (or maybe it's another role on the Gold Coast!) The club extends its best wishes and looks forward to return visits, probably around the time of our master's tournament. Their contributions have been many and varied from hosting functions, supporting tournaments and interclub, assisting with juniors, helping on the bar and providing painting products. And most importantly, they are good people and outstanding club members. Bon voyage and good luck.

Welcome to our latest new members

Jon Chamberlain – joined up to have a hit with his son over the holiday period to see if they catch the "Squash Bug".

Matthew Leahy – an acquaintance of Jeremy Thomas who he is hoping to play against on a regular basis.

'Welcome, and may our existing members make you feel that this is where you belong'
